Hindu Religious & Charitable Endowments Department

`Tholkappiam`, the ancient Tamil work states that in the ancient the land of Tamils, situated between Venkadam hills in the north and Kumari (Kanyakumari) in the south, the gods Mayon (Vishnu) presiding deity for Mullai land (forests), Seyon (Murugan alias Subramaniam) presiding deity for Kurunji land (Hills), Vendan (Indran) presiding deity for Marutham land (Plain) and Varunan (Varuna) presiding deity for Mullai land (Sea) are worshipped.

Based on this, the Department was created to streamline the administration of temples which stand as symbols of our cultural heritage and repositories of history. The temples have been under the superintendence and control of the Government even during days of the East India Company.

The Hindu Temples have been in possession of thousands of Acres of lands since ancient times. Even during the times of East India Company, complaints were received regarding maladministration of these Temples. The general public lodged complaints with the kings then and East India Company.

In the meanwhile, the Madras regulation 1817 was enacted. This Act provided for monitoring whether the grants and endowments to temples were properly utilized or diverted for the welfare of private individuals. The Board was empowered to carry out this exercise. Due to this, thousands of temples were brought under the control of the Government.

In 1858, the Indian Government's Administration was transferred to the British crown directly from the hands of the East India Company. It was required for the British Government to win the confidence of the people and to reduce their ill will. Hence, the British Government assured that it will not interfere in the religious matters. Hence, the persons who were managing the affairs of the temples and their properties continue to enjoy them without any hindrance.

Even though, large number of complaints was received, the British Government kept aloof from the temple administration since they did not understand the complexity of the Indian society and the temple activities entwined with it. At the same time, the people to continue to lodge complaints regarding mismanagement of valuable assets like icons, jewels, etc. and encroachment of properties.

When the Raja of Panagal, Thiru. Ramaraya Ningar took charge as the Chief Minister of the Madras Presidency; he tried to bring all the temples under the control of the Government. He proposed for enactment of "Hindu Paripalanam" Act in 1922. He explained the intricacies of the proposed bill to the then Viceroy, Lord Irwin, and got his approval. Finally, in 1927 the Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Board was constituted. The Board was vested with the power to control and supervise the administration of temple. Similarly, the power to appoint officials to temples for proper administration was also vested with the Board.

Subsequently to streamline the administration of the Board, a special officer was appointed in the year 1940. It was suggested in 1942 by the non-official committee under the chairmanship of a retired High Court Judge that it will be proper if the Government undertakes administration directly instead of the Board. It was accepted and the Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, 1951 was promulgated.

Several amendments were brought out and the Government took over the administration of temples and after several detailed amendments were carried out, the Act XXII of 1959 came into force from 1st January 1960. Based on this Act, a separate Government Department was created for the Administration of temples. (From TN HR & CE Dept.)

Arulmigu Kapaleeswarar Temple

One of the sacred shrines in Tamil Nadu is Arulmigu Kapaleeswarar Temple in Mylapore, in Chennai City. It is a Siva Temple, and the name of the Lord is ARULMIGU KAPALEESWARAR. The name of the Goddess is ARULMIGU KARPAGAMBAL. It is a lovely temple with a Stately Spire or Gopuram as it is called. There is a big tank on its West.

The temple and the tank are surrounded by Broad streets on the four sides. The view of the temple and the tank is pictures. Mylapore is on the seacoast and the shore is away by half a mile of thickly populated residential area.

The name Mylapore is derived from the legend that the Goddess Uma worshipped Siva in the form of a peacock (or mayil in Tamil). We can see a representation of this legend on stone in a small Shrine under a Punnai tree (Sthala Vriksha) in the Courtyard of the temple.

About the College

Arulmigu Kapaleeswarar Arts and Science College fondly called AKASC is located in Kolathur, a prime city of North Chennai. It caters to the educational needs of the underprivileged students. It provides quality education to the students from the economically backward community. AKASC has harboured an excellent faculty resource in the city to diffuse dynamism and knowledge to the numerous learners for years to come adhering to our motto "கல்வியால் உலகை ஆள்வோம்" that means "Let's Rule the World by Education."

Establishment

The birth of the college is marked by the G.O. passed on 04-10-2021 in the TN Government Legislative Assembly. AKASC college is the first of its kind to be started on 2nd November 2021 by our honourable Chief Minister of Tamilnadu Thiru. M. K. Stalin. AKASC was founded by the trust of the famous Arulmigu Kapaleeswarar Temple situated in Mylapore, Chennai presided by Hindu Religious & Charitable Endowments Department of Tamilnadu Government. Arulmigu Kapaleeswarar temple trust takes immense pride for entering the field of education with the sole intention of providing educational opportunity to the students from the downtrodden society and to appease their search for world- class education.
